Yeah. As a Naming Committee released article, it ought to have some kind of standard. The capitals are necessary, please edit this if someone would. Also, the title of the thread seems wrong. The shortened names are not just for tricks, but also for combos and pens.

SpiderSpin is not a very common trick, therefore, it has no abbreviation. Not all trick will have an abbreviation, only the more common ones.

lets face it though. no oone would say "ps" for palmspin. it is just too confusing. we all just say palmspin. you guys should shorten LONG names, and IMO palmspin aint long.
